Pastor's Column

To the Parishioners of Our Lady of Lourdes & St. Michael:

In the Gospel of Luke Simeon, an aged and devout Jew stands in the Temple of Jerusalem at the time when Mary and Joseph bring the infant Jesus to be presented in the temple 40 days after his birth, in accord with Jewish custom and law. Simeon is "looking for the consolation of Israel" after being promised "he should not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ. Inspired by the Spirit he came into the temple and when the parents brought in the child Jesus...he took him up in his arms and blessed God and said "Now thou dost dismiss thy servant, O Lord...because my eyes have seen thy salvation..." Those are the beginning words of what we call the "Gospel Cantic of Simeon," which is called the Nuncdimittis, which is said in the Office of Compline. T.S. Eliot wrote this poem after his conversion to Christianity, and there are allusions to Calvary, Lamentations, Leviticus, Isaiah, the Psalms, and the Gospels. There are themes of alienation in a changing world fused with thoughts of his new found faith.

A Song for Simeon
T.S. Eliot

Lord, the Roman hyacinths are blooming in bowls
and The winter sun creeps by the snow hills;
The stubborn season has made stand.
My life is light, waiting for the death wind,
Like a feather on the back of my hand.
Dust in sunlight and memory in corners
Wait for the wind that chills towards the dead land.

Grant us thy peace.
I have walked many years in this city,
Kept faith and fast, provided for the poor,
Have taken and given honour and ease.
There went never any rejected from my door.

Who shall remember my house, where shall live my children's children When the time of sorrow is come? They will take to the goat's path, and the fox's home, Fleeing from the foreign faces and the foreign swords.

Before the time of cords and scourges and lamentation Grant us thy peace.
Before the stations of the mountain of desolation,
Before the certain hour of maternal sorrow,
Now at this birth season of decease,
Let the Infant, the still unspoken and unspoken
Word, Grant Israel's consolation
To one who has eighty years and no to-morrow.

According to thy word,
They shall praise Thee and suffer in every generation
With glory and derision,
Light upon light, mounting the saints' stair.
Not for me the martyrdom, the ecstasy of thought and prayer, Not for me the ultimate vision.
Grant me thy peace. (And a sword shall pierce thy heart, Thine also). I am tired with my own life and the lives of those after me ,I am dying in my own death and the deaths of those after me. Let thy servant depart, Having seen thy salvation.

A MARIAN CONSECRATION RETREAT PROGRAM

There is no better model than Our Holy Mother Mary to live out a life of humility, devotion and obedience to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ that is why our parishes will offer a 33 day retreat program to prepare participants to consecrate themselves to Jesus through Mary.

The retreat book summarizes the spiritual wisdom of St. Louis de Montfort, St. Maximilian Kolbe, Blessed Mother Teresa of Calcutta, and Blessed Pope John Paul II in short, two-page daily readings. The readings are enhanced by small group weekly meetings. The meetings are a combination of discussions and further insights via video from book author Fr. Michael E. Gaitley, MIC.

The parishes must order books on Feb. 7, so sign up now to participate.
