Pastor's Column

To the Parishioners of Our Lady of Lourdes & St. Michael:

The liturgical calendar says we are in "Ordinary Time." I have never really cared for the term "ordinary time" but I was not around when they changed the Church Calendar in the late 1960s. It is, therefore, a fairly recent term, and was an attempt to translate the term "in course." But even that doesn't make a whole lot of sense unless we have an idea of what the whole liturgical calendar means. In a nutshell, it sanctifies time. Fr. Cipolla writes that the Calendar recognizes the radical event of the Incarnation, which changes the reality of time and space for ever.

"But the foundation of the Liturgical Calendar is the cycles that celebrate the Mysteries of the Birth, Life, Death, Resurrection and Ascension of the Lord Jesus Christ. The Christmas cycle, which we [just celebrated], gives ultimate meaning to the secular, physical time when the days are becoming longer, a bit more light each day. In the Christmas cycle we celebrate the coming into the world of the Light that shines in the darkness. We celebrate the making flesh of God in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the birth of her child whose name is Jesus—he who comes to save. The climax of this cycle has always been the Epiphany, a feast older than Christmas, a feast that celebrates the fact that the event and the person of the Incarnation embraces not only time and space but embraces all the peoples of the world. And the feast of the Epiphany proclaims in its three-fold way the answer to the seminal question asked in the Gospels: who is this man Jesus? He is the one who is worshipped as God. He is the one who is the Son of God in whom his Father is well pleased. He is the one who changes water into wine, for he is the Lord of creation itself.

“One of the saddest and most deleterious effects of the changes in the structure and content of the Liturgical Calendar in the post-Conciliar reform is the lack of understanding of the sanctification of time by the feasts and fasts of the Church. The introduction, at least in English, of the term, “ordinary time”, contradicts the fact that after the Incarnation there is no "ordinary" time. There is only the extraordinary time that has been brought into being by the insertion of the dagger of the Incarnation into ordinary time. But even this does not take away from the fact of the impoverishment of the Liturgical Calendar that has been effected by taking away the Sundays after the Epiphany and the Sundays after Pentecost. The traditional way of naming these Sundays understood that these two feasts, Epiphany and Pentecost, are the climaxes of the Christmas and Easter seasons, the seasons that celebrate the event and meaning of, respectively, the Birth, and the Death and Resurrection of Christ, and therefore these feasts become the touchstone, the source of reality of the Sundays of the Church Year.”

The modern Calendar says we in “Ordinary Time.” But we intuitively know we are not living in times that are ordinary. These are extraordinary times; this is sanctified time; this is the second Sunday after the Epiphany; the second week of living knowing that the Lord has been revealed to us yet again, in a new and extraordinary way. I hope it has!

COMING IN FEBRUARY

Feb. 11 -- Our Lady of Lourdes will celebrate the parish's feast day on Tuesday, Feb. 11 with a special 6:30 PM Mass followed by a showing of the Song of Bernadette movie in the parish hall. The free movie is in English with Spanish subtitles.

Feb. 20 – Want to grow in holiness, be spiritually renewed and develop a deeper relationship with Our Merciful Savior? Starting on Feb. 20, Our Lady of Lourdes will offer 33 Days to Morning Glory: A Do-It-Yourself Retreat in Preparation for Marian Consecration. For six weeks, the program will teach us about drawing closer to the Heart of Jesus through the Heart of Mary with the aid of short daily readings from four great Marian giants: St. Louis de Montfort, St. Maximilian Kolbe, Blessed Mother Teresa, and Blessed John Paul II. The readings will be supplemented by weekly meeting on Thursday nights from 7 to 8:30 PM. At the end of the retreat, participants are invited to make a consecration to Jesus through Mary on the Feast Day of the Annunciation of the Lord on March 25. Look for more details on the program next week.

The Knights of Columbus will support Adoration for Life by signing up for some of the early morning hours.

Everyone is encouraged to
