Pastor's Column

To the Parishioners of Our Lady of Lourdes & St. Michael:

“On Sundays, especially in Easter Time, the blessing and sprinkling of water as a memorial of Baptism may take place...and it takes the place of the usual Penitential Act at the beginning of Mass.” Roman Missal, 3rd Edition, Appendix II
“From time to time on Sundays, especially in Easter Time, Instead of the customary Penitential Act, the blessing and sprinkling of water may take place as a reminder of Baptism. #51 General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 3rd Edition.

What adjective would you use to describe the “sprinkling?” Fun? Annoying? Meaningful? A nice change? For the Sundays of Easter in place of the penitential act we used the Rite of blessing and sprinkling of water. Several people have asked why I do this; that no other parish does this. Well, off hand, I can think of 2 parishes in the Diocese that do it, and in order to let you know why we did, I have listed above the “rubrics,” (rules) of the Missal which all priests are to follow. Yes, the operative word is “may,” as in optional, but it is also encouraged in Eastertide. Note also, that it is not just Eastertide, but could be done on other Sundays as well.

If you are old enough to remember the Mass before 1970, or have attended the Traditional Latin Mass (TLM), then the rubrics called for the “sprinkling” for the principal Mass of a church on Sunday. “At the time, it was customary for Sunday Mass to begin with a sprinkling rite. Approaching the altar with water he had blessed in the sacristy, the priest sprinkled the altar, himself, the ministers, and the people. Meanwhile, a choir would sing Psalm 50 (51), verse 9 in Latin, Asperges me. During the Easter season, the text changed to Ezekiel 47:1, 8, 9, Viduaquam. The first text means “you sprinkle me” and comes from a prayer for purification. The second means “I saw water” and refers to a vision of Ezekiel, who saw water flowing from the Temple to give life to the earth. It served as a prophecy for the sacrament of Baptism. The ceremony took its name from the first word, asperges, and the sprinkler became known as the aspergillum” (Paul Tuner, Pastoral Liturgy).

During the Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday in lieu of the Penitential Rite we were invited to renew our baptismal promises (not vows). This is the heart of spiritual “new life” in Christ for the days of Easter and this is what we are to contemplate each Sunday as we were reminded of our baptism through the right of sprinkling. In our renewed and faithful life in Christ, do we, through our thoughts and actions utterly reject Satan, and all his works (temptations) and all his empty promises (go ahead, just do it)? Our baptism gives us all the graces we need to combat the devil, but still we fall into old patterns, passions of anger, feelings of hopelessness, and temptations. Remember with the coming of Pentecost we are promised the Holy Spirit to be for us the love of God that is ever ready to help remind us of those graces and stay on the true path of holiness. Normally we will not do the Asperges outside of Eastertide. I already miss it.
