To the Parishioners of Our Lady of Lourdes & St. Michael:

Passing the Peace:
Part Two

The Congregation for Divine Worship has recently released a letter addressing liturgical abuses during the passing of the peace. Last week I ended by saying that at that moment in the Mass we are about to receive the body, soul, blood and divinity of our Lord and our focus should be on our Lord just made present in the Body and Blood and not be jarred out of our reverence by having to glad hand everyone. This is part two of our looking at the passing of the peace.

First the context. Why do we pass the sign of peace during the Mass? Fr. Hugh Somerville-Knapman, a Benedictine monk at Douai Abby has written on this. "In St Matthew's gospel (5:23-24) our Lord declares, "So if you are offering your gift at the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift." St Paul seems to be a source for the means to obey our Lord's words, and express the unity in peace of the Church gathered for the Eucharist. Several times in his letters he exhorts the Christians to whom he is writing to “greet one another with a holy kiss” (Romans 16:16; 1 Corinthians 16:20; 2 Corinthians 13:12; 1 Thessalonians 5:26). As the Church grew in size and its liturgies grew greater in scale, the necessity for expressing peace and its necessity for the worthy offering of the Sacrifice were united in a ritualised exchange of the Kiss of Peace. In the Eastern Church, and in the West until the fourth century, the Kiss of Peace came before the Offertory, in almost literal adherence to our Lord’s words quoted above.” But by the 12th century, because it became impractical and the potential for indecorous abuse multiplied, the kiss of peace fell out of use.

Fr. continues: “The important point to note here is that the Kiss of Peace was not about offering our peace to another. It was to acknowledge the peace Christ had won for us by his blood shed on the cross, by which we are reconciled to God and to each other in the Person of Christ, in the Church which is his body. St Paul (Ephesians 2:14-16) again is crucial for this understanding of the Kiss of Peace: For he [Christ] is our peace, who has made us both one, and has broken down the dividing wall of hostility, ... that he might create in himself one new man in place of the two, so making peace, and might reconcile us both to God in one body through the cross, thereby bringing the hostility to an end. The emphasis now is not on some gesture of goodwill towards another, but on mutual recognition that the blood of Christ, about to be received in Communion, has put us at peace with God and also in each other by uniting us into his body, the Church, where together we receive his body, the Eucharist.”

After we have focused on the mystery of consecration when all is quiet and reverent; we are supposed to focus on ourselves and then we are supposed to “refocus quickly on the sublime moment of Communion, usually with the singing of the Agnus Dei. On a good day, most people will have refocused and begun singing along by the second of the three invocations in the Agnus Dei!”

SAINT MICHAEL FEAST DAY MASS

Spread the word, St. Michael will celebrate its feast day with an outdoor Mass at 3 PM on Sunday, September 28th. The Mass will be followed by a potluck fellowship gathering.

The church offers a plenary indulgence for visiting a parish on its titular feast day. In addition to visiting the church, one has to pray one Our Father and the Creed, as well as the normal conditions of true repentance, having a recent confession, receiving communion, and praying for the intentions of the Holy Father.

Indulgences release us from the punishment for our sins that have been confessed and forgiven.

KNIGHTS SPONSOR CLOTHING & BLOOD DRIVES

The Knights are continuing to accept clothing and other articles for homeless veterans until October 19.

Items needed include any clothing, hair care products, lotions, toothpaste and toothbrushes. Donation boxes are located in the back of both parishes.

The Knights also are sponsoring a Blood Drive on Monday, Nov. 3 from 3 to 7 PM at Our Lady of Lourdes. Please sign up for a time slot. Sign up sheets are in the back of each church.

SETTING THE WORLD ON FIRE

Saint Catherine of Siena Class Starts Sept. 24

WHO: Course designed for adult Catholic women.

WHAT: 10-week Endow class on the life and writings of St. Catherine of Siena. No homework assignments. Class facilitated by Teresa Dean.

WHERE: Our Lady of Lourdes Rectory (small house beside the church).

WHEN: Wednesdays after Mass, 7 to 8:30 PM, starting on Sept. 24.

WHY: Learn from this great saint who was a fearless reformer of the church and a great mystic who recorded her conversations with God in the famous book "The Dialogue". Be encouraged by the saint who said: "There is nothing we can desire or want that we do not find in God."

How: Register online by Sept. 16 by going to: <http://store.endowonline.org/teresa-dean-p1865.aspx>. If you are unable to register online, contact Teresa Dean at 615-517-1864.

Cost: $19.95 plus shipping. Reimbursement scholarships are available for those in need from the parish office.
